

I believe that K-Love is a vital ministry in my community and throughout the world. They offer a much needed lift to the rigors and stresses of everyday life, reminding us daily that God is in control. I support this radio station financially, in the form of a monthly pledge. Without the ability to receive this broadcast locally, my family and my community would lose an inspiring, unreplaceable resource.